Matters Arising

- The boiler annual service is due
- The hiring fees had now been implemented at £70 per Masonic meeting.
- No information was available on the Safety Audit.
- The new cleaner was working well and improvements were noticeable
- The bifold doors were on order
- The Caterers require some new equipment, and this too is on order.

AOB:

The external surfaces of the building require maintenance, and the guttering may need total replacement for longevity.

Much of the internal surfaces require freshening up. If enough volunteers could be found, it could be done at little cost.

The space in the Robing room was discussed. To create more useable space, the old central table and chairs could be removed and shelving added around the room to store members briefcases.

It was felt that the number of Masonic meetings was now at a maximum (KT joining next year)

This was a much-shortened meeting closing at 2000.
